Network of Accredited Clinical Skills Centres in Europe (NASCE)

A multidisciplinary joint committee of the UEMS

The Network of Accredited Skills Centres in Europe, known as NASCE, was established in September 2014 as a Multidisciplinary Joint Committee of the Union Européenne des Médecins Spécialistes (UEMS) and supported by 21 sections and boards of the UEMS. The intent of NASCE is to enhance the standards for the operation of Clinical Skills Centres, within the European Union (EU) and EU affiliated countries in the UEMS area, through assessment and accreditation. NASCE promotes individual, inter-professional and multidisciplinary clinical skills education and aims to advance the science of clinical education, training, and assessment. The Multidisciplinary Joint Committee aims to create a system of support for the delivery of state of the art clinical skills training.

Save the date!
4th- 6th October 2018
Rigshospitalet
Copenhagen, Denmark

Collaborate, network and share expertise with other accredited NASCE centres at the forefront of Simulation-Based Education and training in Europe and beyond!
