The Jeronimo Concept

Yes, but:

- Spain (ready to include the best proposal of UEMS in the new training program)
- Hungary (surgical ass. needs to make a decision and ask the Ministry)
- Norway (There are no plans for a national exam in general surgery. The Government authorities are interested in an update in these questions and are not negative to discuss an exam in the future.)
Yes, but:

- Switzerland (Swiss association is willing to join the concept with some delay due to recent introduction of a new training program)

- Malta (surgical ass. proposes creation of a dual system where countries can decide to adopt EBSQ exam as an exit exam to get CCT/CCST or to apply for EBSQ after Specialist registration)

No: - UK: Surgical Colleges:

the present examination system is tried, tested and robust and there is no appetite to change what seems to be working well
